Re: Larry Hutcher, et. al. v. Madison Square Garden Entertainment Corp., et. al., Index 653793/2022

Dear Mr. Weidenfeld:

I am in receipt of your letter dated November 14, 2022 ("November 14 Letter") that is reminiscent of your September 16, 2022 letter.

While ordinarily I would use my own words to characterize the letter and "policy" contained therein, the Honorable Kathleen McCormick of the Delaware Chancery Court said it far better than I could when she described it as "completely idiotic" and the "stupidest thing" she has ever read. The November 14 Letter is nothing more than a cynical and extremely misguided attempt to circumvent Judge Frank's decision and order dated November 14, 2022 ("Order"). As such, I will treat the admonitions and threats contained therein as a nullity.

Plaintiffs reserve all rights and remedies, including, but not limited to, seeking an order holding you individually and MSG in contempt should you fail to fastidiously adhere to the terms of the Order.

Very truly yours,

Larry Hutcher
